National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., Proposed Cross Burnings on Night of January 29, 1966, at Griffin, Georgia

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

[redacted]
[redacted] from Athens, Georgia, were present and planned to participate in the cross burnings. [redacted] were acquitted for the murder of Lemuel A. Penn. [redacted] was armed with a Springfield 30.06 military rifle. [redacted] were armed with .12 gauge double-barrel sawed-off shotguns. All of the men appeared to be armed with side arms.

On January 24, 1966, [redacted] advised three Klansmen from the Barnesville, Georgia, Klavern of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., had gone to Griffin on January 23, 1966, and had contacted [redacted] advised he had been unable to learn the location of Chief Blackwell's home but would determine this before Saturday, January 29, 1966. These men decided that a cross should not be burned in front of Griffin City Hall as the Griffin Police Department changes shifts at 11 p.m. They felt there was too much chance of being caught if they burned a cross in front of City Hall. [redacted] advised he would recontact [redacted] before January 29, 1966, in order that this group could make further plans for the cross burnings. Knowles again stated that a cross had to be burned in front of Chief Blackwell's home.

On January 18 and January 25, 1966, Leo Blackwell, Chief of Police, Griffin, Georgia, Police Department, was advised of the plans of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., to burn crosses in Griffin and of their plan to burn one of these crosses in front of Chief Blackwell's home.

activities for the National Knights. [redacted] reliable source has advised that [redacted] Province Titan [redacted] at Meridian, Mississippi, and [redacted] [redacted] are working toward securing members for VENABLE's outfit.

[redacted] states that [redacted] has lied to officers, Titans and Kleagles, about financial matters and refuses to furnish them with financial data, which appears to be a major cause of the impending breakup in the UKA, Inc. organization. Source stated that it appears that [redacted] or will be the [redacted] of a new organizational structure. This structure will consist of a board of directors, or similar type group, which will include representatives, probably Titans and Kleagles, from all provinces and this body will establish policy and endeavor to pick up the units of the UKA, Inc. which have ceased to be active, pay dues, or have actually turned in or torn up their charters. [redacted] advised if this is carried out it is [redacted] that [redacted] may be offered a place on this board of [redacted]. He stated it was contemplated that an accountant would be hired to handle financial affairs for the Klan. Source advised that in the event this reorganization is successful, property somewhere near the center of the state will be acquired for regular gatherings of officers and open meetings will be held and a constructive program put into effect. Source advised that it is the desire of a number of the Titans and Kleagles that something constructive be striven for and it is not felt that the current organization has anything to offer of a positive nature. Source advised that it is the belief of a number of Klan leaders throughout the state [redacted] putting forth a public program they will be able to attract [redacted] from the upper-class element and will be able, perhaps [redacted] effective organization and obtain some public support.

b6
b7C
b7D

Source advised that the HCUA Hearings in Washington have succeeded in tearing up the UKA, Inc. in Mississippi to a certain extent, one of the major factors being the seeming incessant demands of [redacted] for more money. Source advised that [redacted] while in Washington for the HCUA Hearings, demanded that Mississippi leaders return and raise $6000.00 for expenses in Washington. Source advised that he doubted seriously that this money would be forthcoming in view of the fact that a great many units, individuals and provinces have quit sending money to the state headquarters.

Source advised that the attempted reorganization would probably not take place until after the close of the HCUA Hearings in Washington, or at least until all witnesses from Mississippi have testified and returned home.

Bureau will be advised of any further developments in the organizational structure of the UKA, Inc., as well as recruiting activities of the National Knights.

Recep of SA [redacted] dated 1/21/66 at Referenced report indicates the definite organization of Klaverns Six and Seven in the Cleveland territory, each having 75 members. There is no indication of whether Klaverns One through Five have also been organized in Ohio or whether there are more than seven klaverns in existence in that state.

The Bureau is aware that state officials previously rescinded a charter which had been issued the Klan and that as of October, 1965, the Cincinnati Office indicated that there was no formal organization of the Klan in Ohio. The information furnished by the Cleveland Office tends to indicate that formal organization has taken place.

Accordingly, your coverage of Klan activities must be intensified. You should be aware of the number of members, their identities, the identities of the leaders and of the general activities of each klavern presently in existence. The Bureau has previously indicated that a minimum of one member informant must be developed or placed in each klavern of each Klan organization. This is only a minimum requirement and you are expected to develop sufficient informant coverage to keep you aware of all Klan activities and in particular of any potential violence planned by Klan organizations or their members.

Wherever the Klan has become organized, there has been a proportionate increase in racial tension. Such an increase in racial tension very often results in acts of violence and you must be particularly cognizant of these members who have a propensity for violence. Any information regarding potential violence must be immediately disseminated to appropriate Federal intelligence agencies and furnished the Bureau for dissemination. You should also advise local authorities of any potential violence within their jurisdiction.

Inasmuch as the Klan is still in its early formative stages in Ohio, a definite opportunity is presented for you to gear your intelligence coverage to Klan growth to stay on top of the situation and also for you to develop effective counter-intelligence measures aimed at disrupting the Klan in your state. Of course, any specific plans for counterintelligence activity must be submitted to the Bureau and prior Bureau authority obtained before such plans are put into action.

The Bureau expects the Cincinnati and Cleveland Offices to take an aggressive approach to the Klan problem. In the Bureau's experience, there have been several areas where the Klan seemed to spring up overnight, and the offices found it impossible to obtain the coverage required. Careful planning is vital if Cincinnati and Cleveland are to stay on top of this situation. You are reminded that all pertinent developments regarding Klan activities in Ohio must be promptly brought to the Bureau's attention.

NOTE:

There is evidence that captioned organization is becoming organized in Ohio after several months of membership-recruiting without effective organization. The above instructions are being issued to emphasize to the Cincinnati and Cleveland Offices the importance of these investigations and the necessity of staying on top of the situation to avoid becoming overwhelmed by sudden Klan growth.

He stated that at this meeting in Covington, there was some sort of an altercation concerning a fire that the Klan had built and several people were arrested, but he did not know who they were nor what the details of the altercation were.

[redacted] continued that he did not agree with all programs backed by the Klan and certainly did not agree with their reported violence and intimidation that he has heard about. He stated that he did not intend to remain active in the Klan since their aims and objectives were not coincidental with his own.

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

On January 29, 1966, a confidential source of the Cincinnati Office furnished the following information to a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation:

Two individuals who are Klan members named [redacted] Oregonia, Ohio, and [redacted] Dayton, Ohio, came into the Blue Chip Tavern this same date. These two individuals appeared to be in an excited state and inquired of the owner of this tavern if he could furnish them with a gun to get someone. The tavern owner stated he could furnish them with no weapons and shortly thereafter both these individuals departed the tavern. The identity of the alleged victim was never made known by these two individuals.

These two men were driving a 1965 white Dodge owned by [redacted] which is equipped with a sending and receiving radio. The confidential source said he was aware that [redacted] was angered recently because [redacted] was replaced in his job by a Negro, and he assumed that this was the cause for their actions.

This same date, the above information was furnished to [redacted] Detective Unit, Dayton, Ohio, Police Department in view of the possibility of the contemplated violence. [redacted] stated that his department would take appropriate action.

V. MISCELLANEOUS

On September 29, 1965, [REDACTED] Kentucky State Police, Frankfort, Kentucky, advised that two members of the Kentucky State Police attended a rally of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) held near Covington, Kentucky, September 25 and 26, 1965, in an undercover capacity. During the attendance they obtained an application for membership in the organization which reflects the National Headquarters to be Post Office Box 107, Tucker, Georgia. No information has been received indicating that a chapter or klavern of the NKKKK has been formed in Kentucky.

Serious organizational difficulties are currently being experienced by the United Klans of America, Incorporated, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (UKA) in Mississippi. Several units or klaverns have turned in their charters and many have declined to contribute money to the State Office of UKA. Some current members of UKA have been in contact with JAMES R. VENABLE for the purpose of organizing units of NKKKK in the State of Mississippi. Some members are actively recruiting members for the NKKKK.

DATE 8-23-88 BY SP-8 JY/par

On January 19, 1966, the following advertisement appeared in the "Personals" column of the "New Castle News," New Castle, Pa.:

"Join the National Ku Klux Klan, P. O.
Box 653, New Castle, Pa., 16103, Thomas J. Mitchell,
337 E. Washington St."

Inquiry at the "New Castle News," on January 19, 1966, determined that Thomas J. Mitchell, above address, arranged for the above advertisement with the "New Castle News" and same was prepaid for a period of three days. A source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 19, 1966, that Mitchell subscribed to Post Office Box 653, at the United States Post Office, New Castle.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New Castle, New Castle, Pa., reflect that Mitchell [redacted]

Mitchell said that although he had prepaid the advertisement, he had notified the newspaper office to discontinue same after it appeared in the newspaper on January 19, 1966. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell appeared emotionally upset during the interview and at times, Mitchell broke down and wept. He stated that he realized that he was suffering from mental depressions and shortcomings, and he displayed razor-slash scars on both wrists, which he said were the result of suicide attempts while serving in the U. S. Air Force from October 19, 1961, to August 10, 1964. Mitchell stated that he is presently receiving $240 per month compensation from the United States Government, which represents 100% disability following his honorable discharge from the U. S. Air Force for psychiatric reasons.

Mitchell admitted that he has been a subscriber to "The Thunderbolt," and that he had directed letters to that publication in the past, setting forth his opinions regarding racial matters and problems.

"The Thunderbolt" is described in the characterization of the National States Rights Party in the Appendix hereto.

Mitchell volunteered that he became "disillusioned" over alleged "white supremacy" while serving with the U. S. Air Force in Germany and had since become interested in the Ku Klux Klan and other "hate organizations"; however, he stated that he has since realized the fallacies of the policies of these organizations and is going to disassociate himself immediately from them altogether. Mrs. Mitchell stated that she had never agreed with her husband's former beliefs in this regard and felt that he was on the verge of another mental breakdown.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell stated that they planned to depart from New Castle, where both were reared, during February, 1966, for Youngstown, Ohio, where they will reside and seek employment. Mitchell stated that he planned to discontinue any contact with "hate organizations" in the future.

Mitchell concluded that he knew of no other Klan sympathizers in the New Castle area and that he had never held or attended any Klan meetings.

Today, anonymous information received by the Cincinnati FBI Office that three individuals (later described below) who are either Klansmen or are strongly sympathetic to the Klan, were overheard discussing possibility of taking the following action:

AL SCHOETTELKOTTE, local Cincinnati television personality and leading newscaster, WCPO, Channel 9, has been a "thorn inside" against the Klan and at every chance gives out bad publicity to turn the public opinion against the Klan.

The three men involved are considering following Mr. SCHEOTTELKOTTE on his way home after his late night TV newscast and establish his pattern of movement. At the right time they will confront him and "work him over" for his actions against the Klan.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.

According to a news item, captioned "Klan Plans April Rally in Mercer," which appeared in the "Bluefield Daily Telegraph," Bluefield, W. Va., on March 9, 1966, W. E. Houchins, Hinton, W. Va., identified as head of the West Virginia-Virginia chapter of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, stated that plans had been made to stage a rally somewhere between Bluefield and Princeton, W. Va., late in April, 1966. Houchins said that 10,000 persons were expected to attend, including grand dragons from five states. He said that he was seeking a site for the rally.

Another article appeared in the "Bluefield Daily Telegraph," on March 10, 1966, under the caption, "Klan Can't Find Suitable Pasture in Area for Its Planned Rally." This article stated that West Virginia's Ku Klux Klan "was having trouble finding an available "cow pasture" which would accommodate 10,000 klansmen. Houchins, mentioned above, stated that he had "run into a real problem" in that he had made dozens of telephone calls and had driven about 300 miles and had been unable to locate a site for the proposed rally. He said that the rally would be held in late April or early May, 1966. Houchins allegedly stated that his klan group did not hold a charter at present but indicated that he would apply for one within the next three weeks.

Reference is made to memorandum dated March 16, 1966 captioned as above.

The picket scheduled by the captioned organization to be held at the Board of Education Building of Kettering, Ohio, 3490 Far Hills, Kettering, Ohio, was held as scheduled by members of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan from the hours of approximately twelve o'clock noon to 1:00 PM on March 19, 1966. The pickets consisted of approximately 28 individuals, all but ten of which wore white robes. Four women were included in the pickets. An American flag was carried by one of the persons in the picket and several others carried confederate flags. Some other persons on the picket line were carrying placards some of which read as follows: "Stamp out socialism in schools," "Do you want your school integrated," "Yesterday, today, tomorrow, forever KKK," and "Help save America - join KKK".

The picketing was peaceful and no incidents occurred. They walked up and down in front of the building on the sidewalk and were orderly. The leader of the pickets appeared to be [redacted] a self admitted recruiter for the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan in Ohio.

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INCORPORATED

On March 16, 1966, anonymous information was received by representative of the Cincinnati, Ohio office of the FBI, which information has not been established reliable or unreliable, as follows:

Three individuals (later described below) who are either members of the Klan or are strongly sympathetic to the Klan were overheard discussing taking the following action:

Al Schoettelkotte, local Cincinnati television personality and leading newscaster, WCPO, Channel 9, has been a "thorn in the side" of the Klan and at every chance gives out bad publicity to turn the public opinion against the Klan.

The three men involved are considering following Mr. Schoettelkotte on his way home after his late night TV newscast and establishing his pattern of movement. At the right time they will confront him and "work him over" for his actions against the Klan.

These men are usually under the influence of alcohol when they get together and continually have some type of gripe against some person or organization.

[redacted] Cincinnati, Ohio Police Department was immediately furnished complete details of above. He requested that the Cincinnati FBI Office contact Mr. Schoettelkotte and apprise him of this situation and request that Mr. Schoettelkotte contact [redacted] if agreeable with Cincinnati Police Department affording him appropriate coverage.

[redacted] pointed out that many individuals do not desire police coverage under circumstances such as these, and this was the reason for this request.

This same date, Al Schoettelkotte was appropriately apprised of full details concerning this matter. He expressed gratitude and appreciation to the Cincinnati FBI Office and stated he would immediately comply with [redacted]

The identity of the three individuals involved are:

1 [redacted] residence Mason, Ohio - [redacted] is known to the Cincinnati FBI Office and local sources have identified him as being a member of above Klan group. Sources describe him as being quite a heavy drinker, a braggart and has been in trouble with law enforcement authorities in the past.

[redacted] Forest Park, Ohio - Cincinnati sources have identified [redacted] as being a Klan member who drinks heavily on occasion and strongly dislikes Negroes.

3 [redacted] Cincinnati, Ohio - Cincinnati sources have also identified [redacted] as being either a Klan member or strongly sympathetic to the Klan, being in the same category with Dillingham and Smith.

Mr. Schoettelkotte strongly indicated that he was aware of the identity and background of the above three men.

- P -

DETAILS:

A characterization of National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., and National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Ohio, Inc., is contained in Appendix of this report.

I. ORGANIZATION STRUCTURE

A. Headquarters - Klaverns - Finances

On March 14, 1966 [] furnished the following information:

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

Recent information has been developed that a klavern has been established in the Dayton, Ohio, area. The number of the klavern is currently unknown as are the financial aspects. [] for this Klan in Ohio, is the driving force behind this klavern. []

[] Dayton, Ohio, has been appointed [] is the number two man. There are approximately 15 individuals residing in and around the Dayton, Ohio, area who have been known to attend at least two meetings in the past. These two meetings have been held at the residence of [] Dayton, Ohio. [] residence a [] is currently considered to be headquarters for this klavern. [] claims affiliation with JAMES VENABLE, Imperial Wizard, Tucker, Georgia.

This klavern is currently in the early stages of being organized and no definite place for holding meetings has been set up as yet.

B. General Activities

On January 10, 1966, [] advised as follows:

[] held a small informal meeting on his farm at Oregonia, Ohio, January 9, 1966, for the purpose of trying to raise funds to continue Klan activities. Approximately $100 was received for the alleged benefit of this Klan group. [] can be expected to continue to hold small group meetings on his farm from time to time.

On February 23, 1966, [] advised as follows:

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

On February 18, 1966, [] Klansman from Walton, Kentucky [] South Lebanon, Ohio, and [] got together on [] farm to discuss necessary details concerning this Klan and possible security measures to be followed in the future if Klan rallies or meetings are held.

[] still maintains his apartment on [] in Dayton, Ohio, and holds occasional meetings here. He is becoming very security conscious and trusts very few people.

[] recently on Sunday, February 20, 1966, decided to hold a meeting at his apartment for some of the old timers. When they showed up, each was handed a piece of paper instructing them to travel to the Imperial Motel, just North of Dayton. All travelled together so that no one could stop to make a contact with anyone.

This same group then met at the Imperial Motel and at the start each person there was searched for tape recorders, guns, etc.

There were approximately 15-20 persons at this meeting, most identities unknown. [] is definitely trying to set up an organized klavern in the Dayton, Ohio, area, however, it is not operating on a regular basis nor organized as yet. It is extremely difficult to maintain interest among Klan members and make them attend meetings.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

[] both of Dayton, [] area, are considered leading Klan members in Dayton at this time. This situation can change quickly and unexpectedly.

On March 7, 1966, [] furnished the following information:

At least one organization type meeting has been held, believed during February, 1966, at the Imperial House Motel, Route 25, North of Dayton, Ohio, by captioned Klan. Approximately 15 to 25 individuals attended this meeting which included the presence of []

b6
b7D

On March 18, 1966, [] advised that captioned Klan has definitely scheduled picket activity in the vicinity of the Kettering School Board, Dayton (Kettering), Ohio, on March 19, 1966.

On March 19, 1966, Chief of Police JOHN R. SHRYROCK, Kettering, Ohio, Police Department, furnished the following information to SA []

The picket scheduled by the captioned Klan to be held at the Board of Education Building of Kettering, Ohio, 3490 Far Hills, Kettering, Ohio, was held as scheduled by members of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan from the hours of approximately twelve o'clock noon to 1:00 PM on March 19, 1966. The pickets consisted of approximately 28 individuals, all but ten of which wore white robes. Four women were included in the pickets. An American flag was carried by one of the persons in the picket and several others carried confederate flags. Some other persons on the picket line were carrying placards some of which read as follows: "Stamp out socialism in schools", Do you want your school integrated", "Yesterday, today, tomorrow, forever KKK", and "Help save America - join KKK".

b6
b7C
b7D

The picketing was peaceful and no incidents occurred. They walked up and down in front of the building on the sidewalk and were orderly. The leader of the pickets appeared to be [] a self-admitted recruiter for the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan in Ohio.

[] carried a two-way transistorized radio and apparently had individuals stationed in the vicinity giving him reports on activity as observed by them from vantage points. The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan also had individuals at the picket taking photographs of the picket taking place and of police officers and others in the immediate vicinity.

C. Miscellaneous Information

On March 23, 1966, [] advised that JAMES VENABLE, Imperial Wizard, (NKKKK) is not happy with [] for his part in organizing the picket activity March 19, 1966, at

CI 157-245

Kettering, Ohio. Therefore, it must be assumed that acted on his own initiative in connection with the picket activity and did not have the backing of VENABLE.

DEMONSTRATION FOR MARCH 12,

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that the above captioned organization was attempting to organize a picket to be held at the Kettering Ohio Board of Education Building, which is located at 3490 Far Hills Avenue, Kettering, Ohio, on the morning of Saturday, March 12, 1966. The organizing was to be conducted by [redacted] a self-admitted Ohio KKK recruiter and he expected participants from various cities in the state of Ohio.

The purpose of the picket was to exhibit a disagreement with the school board actions in the past which allowed "left wing" speakers, but disallowed "right wing" speakers to be heard by any student in a high school in Kettering.

A source on the Kettering Ohio Police Department advised on March 12, 1966, that by way of a discreet surveillance in the vicinity of the Kettering Board of Education Building it was determined that no picketing took place as scheduled on the morning of March 12, 1966. This source stated that the automobile registered to [redacted], mentioned above, was observed in the parking area of the board of education building, but no actual picketing or any other actions on his part took place.

On March 12, 1966, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised a representative of the Cincinnati FBI Office that the scheduled picketing by above Klan group at Dayton, Ohio, this date,

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

On March 25, 1966, a confidential source of the Cincinnati FBI Office, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information to a representative of the Cincinnati FBI Office:

There is a fifty-fifty chance that another Klan picketing demonstration will be held in the vicinity of the Kettering School Board, Kettering, Ohio, March 26, 1966. This picket is expected to be similar to the picket held last week at the same location on March 19, 1966. A fewer number of participants are also expected, and if held, the picket will not take place until approximately 3:00 p.m. or later. Some Klansmen from the Cleveland, Ohio, area are expected to participate.

On March 25, 1966, John R. Shryock, Chief of Police, Kettering, Ohio, Police Department, was advised and alerted of the above details.

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is attached hereto.

[redacted] on 3/30/66 informed that on 3/27/66, [redacted] of Cleveland Klavern #6, advised that a NKKKK Grand Dragon for Ohio had recently been appointed by Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, although he did not reveal the identity of the new Grand Dragon. He also noted that he [redacted] had been appointed a [redacted] for the Ohio Counties of Cuyahoga, Lake, Geauga, Medina, and perhaps one other county, and that his appointment could be verified through VENABLE.

[redacted] stated that in the future Klaverns would be reorganized into separate units of ten Klansmen and not more than 50 Klansmen to a Klavern. The Klavern's Exalted Cyclops would be the only individual knowing all Klavern members, and there would be no communication between Klavern units within a Klavern to insure maximum security.

[redacted] noted that Catholics would be admitted to NKKKK membership, but they would be together in their own unit.
